

Refresher Courses

Are your scuba skills and knowledge a bit rusty?

What's a Refresher Course?

We might not go diving as much as we want so our scuba skills can get a little rusty. It's a good idea to review those skills before you dive again. A Refresher Course is a short course in which you review skills you already learned so that there are no surprises the next time you hit the water.

If you have a trip planned then don't wait—sign up for a refresher today and go on your trip a confident and safe diver!

How is the course set up?

We have 2 options for Refresher courses:

1. Basic Scuba Skills Refresher: $69

This course is ideal if it's been less than 1 year since your last dive. During a 3-hour pool dive session with an Instructor or Divemaster you review skills such as, but not limited to:

- ✓ Scuba system set-up
- ✓ Pre-dive safety checks
- ✓ Mask removal and clearing
- ✓ Buoyancy control and weight recommendations
- ✓ Emergency skills
- ✓ Gear and maintenance recommendations

This refresher is free* if you did your Open Water Diver course at Water Sports. If you didn't do the Open Water Diver course at Water Sports the cost of this refresher is $69. (Gear not included).

2. In Depth Scuba Skills Refresher: $129

This course is recommended if it's been more than a year since your last dive. In addition to the skills reviewed in the pool with the basic refresher you also attend a class review that includes topics such as, but not limited to:

- ✓ Safe dive planning fundamentals
- ✓ Basic diving physics and physiology
- ✓ Electronic multi-level recreational dive planner
- ✓ Includes the PADI Scuba Tune Up Guidebook!

When you finish the refresher your instructor will sign your logbook indicating that you've done the Scuba Skills Update.

The cost of this refresher including the Scuba Tune Up Guidebook is only $129. (Gear not included).
